11. A fine not exceeding Rs. 50 will be levied at the discretion of the Superintendent of the Jail and subject to the approval of the Inspector-General of Prisons in each case for any infringement of the stipulation of the contract for the supply of inferior articles, and if frequently violated, the contract may be annulled and the security confiscated to the Government.

12. The decision of the Superintendent, subject to the approval of, and revision by the Inspector-General of Prisons, to be final in all questions of infringement of contract.

13. The contractor will be bound to purchase garden produce required for the use of the prisoners from the Jail at the contract rates.

14. Any further information can be obtained by applying to the Superintendent's Office.

15. The contract will be subject to confirmation by the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, who reserves to himself the right of rejecting all or any of the tenders.

16. If the contractors are unwilling or unable to carry out their agreement, they shall give at least one month's notice and shall be liable to forfeit the security money to Government.

17. The contractors will also be bound to make good to Government any loss which may arise from their failure or by Government having to purchase the articles specified in the contracts in the local markets at higher rates than those contracted for.

18. Juveniles should not be deputed by the contractors to work inside the Jail. All agents for contractors are to be approved by the Superintendent beforehand in writing.

19. Articles of rations should be brought to the Jail between the hours of 8 and 11 A.M. and 3 and 4 P.M.

20. Articles rejected by the Superintendent and Medical Officer on the day of Inspection should be removed immediately from the Jail premises, failing which the same will be placed outside the main gate at the risk of the contractor.

21. Necessary kine should be brought to the Jail daily and milked in the presence of a Jail Officer.

22. The contractors or their agents are not allowed to have transactions of any description with the prisoners or warders of the Jail. Any infringement of the kind will be seriously dealt with by the Superintendent.

N.B.—No concession of any kind will be allowed in the contract.

T. BALAKRISHNA,
Superintendent.

6. The contractor will supply ragi grain to be ground by convicts, which will be issued as flour. Other articles, such as, rice, dal and ballar, etc., will be cleaned by convict labour free before issue. Firewood will also be chopped free by convict labour before issue. Sifters, baskets and such articles which are required for cleaning articles shall be supplied by the contractor. They remain as his property and may be taken back by him after the expiry of the contract period.

The supply will be calculated and payment made upon the quantity of flour so issued at the rate of the ragi grain. In the case of other articles, payments will be made on the quantity of cleaned articles issued.

7. The Inspector-General of Prisons does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any tender and he may reject any tender without assigning any reason for it.

8. The deposit of the successful tenderers will be retained, and will be forfeited if they fail to execute the contract bond or to furnish security to the amount of Rs. 400 in cash or Government paper, within one week from the date of the acceptance of their contracts being made known to them.

9. The contract for supplies shall be entered into for the whole of 12 months of the year 1939 at the end of which alone final adjustment of accounts will take place. In the meanwhile, to facilitate supplies, advances to the extent of the value of supplies made in a month will be made to the contractor at the end of that month, by which time bills with vouchers must be submitted duly signed by him (contractor) in the presence of the Superintendent. The amounts thus advanced will be set off against the amount payable to the contractor at the end of 12 months for things supplied by him. These advances are not liable to be attached by Civil Courts.

10. Store-rooms will be made over to the contractor in which he can keep all non-perishable articles of which not less than one month's supply must always be in store, i.e., the quantity in stock on any day should be not less than a month's supply. In the last month of the contract, the quantity in stock may however be just sufficient to last to the lapse of the contract. The Government shall have a lien on the grains, etc., stored from time to time by the contractor in the Jail premises, for the amounts advanced to him from time to time. Perishable articles such as, vegetables, mutton, etc., must be at the Jail by 7 A.M. daily.

11. A fine not exceeding Rs. 50 will be levied at the discretion of the Superintendent of the Jail and subject to the approval of the Inspector-General of Prisons in each case for any infringement of the stipulation of the contract or for the supply of inferior articles and if frequently violated, the contract may be annulled and the security confiscated to the Government.

12. The decision of the Inspector-General of Prisons will be final in all questions of infringements of contract.

13. Ordinarily, the contractor will not be asked to supply vegetables daily, unless the Jail garden fails, in which case he has to supply them at the rate quoted in his tender. The cost of the vegetables will be excluded for consideration when various tenders received are to be compared.

14. The contractor whose tender is approved must bind himself to supply at ruling market rates any other article required for Jail use although not tendered for.

15. Any further information can be obtained by applying to the Superintendent of the Jail.

16. The accepted tender will be subject to confirmation by the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, who reserves to himself the right of rejecting all or any of the tenders.

17. If the contractor is unwilling or unable to carry out his agreement, he shall give at least one month's notice and shall be liable to forfeit the security money to Government.

18. The contractor will also be bound to make good to Government any loss which may arise from his failure or by Government having to purchase the articles specified in the contracts in the local markets at higher rates than those contracted for. All condemned articles should be removed immediately out of the Jail premises by the contractor. Otherwise, the same will be put outside the Jail gate at contractor's risk. The contractor or his agents shall have no direct dealing whatsoever with prisoners, whether engaged in cleaning ration articles or otherwise.

19. The contractor is required to supply to civil prisoners all such dietary articles as are required for their use at the market rates.

20. Any of the articles included in this tender, if required for the manufacture department of this Jail, must be supplied by the contractor at the tendered rates.

N.B.—No concessions of any kind will be allowed in the contract.
